"Curly" Byrd did the finging for the Harmony Lodge club, which challenged the other Masons, and he received abeautiful pounding. Billy Retr's hardhitting tribe simply jostled him loose from his shoes, grabbing a total of twenty safe blows in nine innigs, while Tommy Thompson, who worked on the mound for the All-Masonic outfit, was never in danger. Thompson allowed seven hits, three of these being acratch blows, fained ten batters, and also connected for a brace of doubles himself.
